

That's Our Morrie!

(To the tune of That's Amore! with apologies to Harry Warren and Jack Brooks)

Who's the man we adore – who we just can't ignore?

That's our Morrie!

It's his birthday again – now he's one hundred ten!

That's our Morrie!

On this day * everyone will say * hip hip hip hooray!

As they sing, shout and bellow

Friends will cheer * folks from far and near * all who hold him dear

Will call up to say hello – to this fellow!

When he's miffed with the news * who writes in with his views?

That's our Morrie!

Who is witty and smart – writing books, making art

You know who...

He's one hundred and ten * but it's hardly the end of his story!

So we gather and cheer * to say so glad you're here!

That's our Morrie!

(Parody lyrics lovingly written in honor of Morrie's 110th by Jeannine Frank)
